

Great Deals for Groups & Societies at Kinross This Year

I don't know about you but the weather here of late has been so cold and miserable that it has been difficult enough to summon up the enthusiasm to venture much outside, let alone play golf. However, now that the new season is not too far away, it is the perfect time to lighten one's spirits by planning your golf outings for 2013. We have so much going on here that you need to know (or remind you) whether you are a society or outing organizer or just a player with some friends ready to tee it up.

Why are the Kinross Golf Courses so popular with groups and societies?

- First of all, our greens fees are unchanged for 2013. No price increase here. The pound in your pocket goes a lot further at Kinross!
- Second, we have two lovely parkland courses beside Loch Leven and there's a great debate at Kinross: which course is more enjoyable? You can play one or both of the courses as part of your day and this makes for fast play and better variety.
- Third, our location, just a mile from Junction 6 on the M90 means that we're just 60 minutes from Glasgow and just 30 minutes from Edinburgh. It's easy to find your way to Kinross.

FOR SOCIETIES / OUTINGS --

BESIDES a dedicated professional coordinator for your group, sensibly priced green fees, on course contests, a fully licensed clubhouse with great food and two hotels on site if accommodation is required, but there is MORE:
